

Epileptic Disorders Educational Prize

Dr. Guadalupe Fernandez Baca

Dr. Guadalupe Fernandez Baca Vaca was awarded the Epileptic Disorders Educational Prize for her paper, Epileptic Seizure Semiology in Different Age Groups, by Guadalupe Fernandez-Baca Vaca, Carlos L. Mayor , Naiara García Losarcos, Jun T. Park, Hans O. Lüders, Epileptic Disorders 2018; 20 (3): 179-88. The award will be presented at the 33rd International Epilepsy Congress in Bangkok from June 22-26th 2019.

Dr. Fernandez Baca Vaca was born in Malaga, Spain. She graduated from Malaga School of Medicine and completed residency training in Clinical Neurophysiology at Hospital Clinico San Carlos in Madrid. She also completed her Neurology Residency and Epilepsy Fellowship at University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center.

Dr. Fernandez Baca Vaca is currently an Assistant Professor in Neurology and Program Director for Epilepsy Fellowship and has devoted herself to teaching, academic clinical practice and clinical research at University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center.